

Production Engineering

- Utilizes skills and tools to safely and efficiently operate production and injection wells throughout the life cycle of the asset from initial completion through abandonment of the well

Primary responsibilities...

- Monitor well performance
- Maintain performance of downhole systems
- Design artificial lift systems
- Optimize production of wells and infrastructure assets
- Identify re-completion candidates
- Plug and abandonment

